Ken Kuhnle – Fishing Tales Guide Service
Drop Shotting Geneva for Bass & Pan Fish

Ken Kuhnle is a multi-species fisherman and enjoys fishing for different species all around North America. Ken has caught Peacock Bass in Kauai as well as a variety of ocean fish; King Salmon, Silvers, Halibut, Ling Cod and Grayling in Alaska, and Bull Reds in Louisiana. His favorite body of water to fish is Lac Seul in Ontario, Canada where he has a personal best musky over 50 inches. Ken's local favorite waters are Lake Geneva and Sturgeon Bay, Wisconsin. He also owns Fishing Tales Guide Service taking clients fishing on Geneva and Delavan Lakes.

Ken is known as a featured speaker at many venues including Cabela's special events and multiple All Canada shows as well as many other local events. He is past president of Fox Valley Anglers where he held several other positions, won many of their club tournaments, Rookie of the Year honors, three-time Angler of the Year awards, and is known as the club's "drop shot" expert as well as the "musky" guy. Kuhnle is especially proud of being a founding member of Take A Vet Fishing (a 501(c)(3) national public charity) board of directors.

Ken will be sharing his knowledge of how to use the versatile drop shot technique to catch both bass and pan fish on Geneva.
