Capt. Adam Walton – Pike Pole Fishing Guide Service

HUMMINBIRD SONAR OPERATION

Captain Adam Walton is the owner of Pike Pole Fishing Guide Service, which is located in Southern Wisconsin. He specializes in year-round multi-species fishing and he enjoys taking clients out on a variety of Wisconsin waters, including the Lake Koshkonong system, the Madison Chain of Lakes, Green Bay, and the Lake Winnebago system. Like many others, Adam began fishing at a very young age with his father and grandfather. As a father of three boys himself, passing on this love for the outdoors is something Adam hopes to continue.

Adam honorably served 6 years in the United States Navy and currently holds certifications as a United States Coast Guard Charter Captain, State of Wisconsin Firefighter Paramedic, and an American Heart Association CPR/First Aid Instructor. Along with guiding, another passion Adam has is sharing information related to fishing and outdoor safety. He enjoys doing this by speaking at seminars, writing articles for various outdoor media agencies, and helping with both sponsor and charitable fishing events. Walton also co-host a weekly radio program called "The Fishing Hole", which features fishing reports, guest interviews, and businesses whom have roles in the fishing industry. The show airs every Saturday morning on 101.9FM/1490AM, with coverage spanning throughout Southern Wisconsin and Northern Illinois.

Captain Walton has participated in a few walleye tournaments series in the past including the Midwest Walleye Series, Mercury Nationals, and AIM Wisconsin Walleye Series.
