Captain Ralph Steiger - captainsteiger.com

CLEAR WATER SMALLMOUTH TACTICS

Captain Ralph Steiger is a United States Coast Guard licensed Master Captain. Ralph is a young man that has the pulse on fishing in southern Lake Michigan. If you have seen any of his presentation before you know he has some outstanding knowledge of an untapped fishery not too far away.

Steiger has been fishing his entire life and can't get enough of it. He grew up chasing salmon in the fall and smallies in the spring. He started out fishing tournaments and eventually took it to the next level and became a charter captain and fishes southern Lake Michigan all year long! Whether it's casting for salmon, smallmouth or perch he is on the pulse of the bite in this area. Most all his fishing is done by casting with light line and medium to medium light spinning rods.

Captain Ralph will have you experience lots of areas along the Lake Michigan shoreline in a single day. On an average day you can expect to catch between 18-30 fish. All his smallmouth trips are 100% catch and release - NO EXCEPTIONS.

One goal he has is to help educate people on the great sport of fishing. He will go out of his way to get people, young and old, interested in fishing.

Steiger will share many of his tactics for catching both numbers and big smallmouth in clear water conditions that you can apply to Geneva. Feel free to ask questions about Ralph's methods for jigging lake trout – a really fun tactic. For more information & video about Captain Ralph Steiger visit his web site at: www.captainsteiger.com.
