GENEVA SMALLMOUTH – PRE-SPAWN PATTERNS

Dustin Murguia, known as ‘Dusty Yakker’ across the fishing world, is a former middle-school teacher turned national kayak tournament angler. Hailing from Chicago, IL, Dusty has enjoyed a lifetime of experience in pursuit of both large and smallmouth bass across much of the country. Passionate and approachable, ‘Yakker’ is best known for his impactful writing style, strong camera presence and for emphasizing the redeeming power of the outdoors - not to mention his uncanny knack for catching giant fish.

Over the past decade, Maguria has focused on developing strategies for kayak bass fishing and for competing in kayak fishing tournaments. He is an Illinois Kayak Bass League Champion and Angler of the Year recipient, a two-time Michigan Kayak Trail Championship winner and a recent qualifier for the prestigious Hobie Worlds Competition. Dusty has also enjoyed national success as a two-time Hobie Tournament of Champions qualifier and is one of the more consistent kayak anglers in the country.

For the past several years, Dusty Yakker has been a valued member of the Hobie Fishing Team and is a Pro Team Angler for Dakota – Lithium Batteries and Ketch Products. He also shares his love for photography and videography as a content creator for Ketch Outdoors. You can learn more at facebook.com/dusty.yakker.9/ and by viewing his YouTube videos.

The water is where you will find him - 200-plus days a year. Maybe he is onto something...or into another adventure! Dusty will give a brief introduction to Kayak Fishing, but the focus will be on sharing his tips for pre-spawn Smallmouth bass on Geneva.
