LOOKING BELOW THE SURFACE

FOR HUGE BASS AND MORE

Jim O'Neil has over 15 years in the outdoor industry. His passion began at Marist High School as an I.H.S.A. bass angler, and he is now a television and podcast host for MidWest Outdoors. On the water 100+ days each year, Jim stays on the hottest bites across the Midwest. Come learn how to catch more fish, catch bigger fish, and build lasting memories.

Jim takes us under the water on Geneva and shares with us the fascinating things he saw while at the National Freshwater Spearfishing Championship. He has seen bass even larger than many of have ever seen on our favorite local lake.
